YOUNG PEOPLE, TRANSLATED

The Baden-Powell Scouts' Association is all about developing young people through enjoying the outdoors and learning traditional Scouting skills, supported by a progressive, democratic and friendly organisation.

We believe that our founder was right:

True happiness can be found through helping others and an appreciation of the outdoors.

We are a registered charity No. 278525, have a child protection policy that requires all leaders and helpers to have a DBS check and are insured through specialist outdoor insurers for all the activities we do.

Come and join in.

Baden-Powell Scouts' Association
Traditional Outdoor Scouting for the 21st Century

Things are changing with your Scout Group.

The Change

Dullingham Scouts is changing Association by joining the Baden-Powell Scouts' Association, this gives us the chance to grow and allows anyone over the age of five to join, giving the individual an insight into how to live life to the full and be the best that they can be, through the outdoors.

Through the values in our founder's original programme. Through working with new ideas and technologies. Through being democratic. Through being friendly and supportive.

We will be running five uniformed sections for boys and girls across the age groups:
Beavers - 5 to 8 years old
Wolf Cubs - 8 to 11 year olds
Scouts - 11 to 15 year olds
Senior Scouts - 15 to 18 year olds
Rover Scouts—18 years onwards (end of 2015)

Progressive Programme

Our programme is based on Baden-Powell's original writings, reinterpreted for the 21st century, which progressively builds practical, outdoor & social skills, planning, teamwork & leadership ability and is reflected in our different approaches for each section.

The Beaver Scout motto is 'Busy and Bright' and the closely supervised and structured activities develop social and practical skills and an initial experience of the outdoors through games, crafts, walks, sleepovers and fun.

Wolf Cubs have the motto 'Do Your Best' and join in with activities and games based around the story of the Jungle Book. They are beginning to learn to perform practical skills under supervision and work as a team. They go camping, walking, and light fires as well as interesting visits. Above all it is safe and fun.

Scouts have the motto 'Be Prepared' and work through a progressive scheme of skills learning, including planning and operating as a Patrol (a mixed age and experienced group of 5 to 6 led by an older Scout). They run their own camps and expeditions.

Activities increase in terms of adventure and include climbing, canoeing, pioneering and hill walking.

Senior Scouts operate with the motto 'Look Wide' and build on the levels of self-sufficiency and outdoor adventure operating on a global stage and can do the Bronze and Silver Duke of Edinburgh Award. Leaders encourage the section to manage their own activities through coaching. Senior Scouts will run alongside the Scouts for the time being

Rover Scouts have the motto 'Service' and are a fellowship of the outdoors, pushing their own personal development through adventure and volunteering. There is no upper limit to age and awards are based on national governing body qualifications and the DofE Gold award. We aim to have a Rover Scout section up and running by the end of 2015
